

A Public Voice

Through consultation and discussion, UKLA contributes to public debate on key issues of literacy education in the UK.

Conferences

UKLA organises regional, national and international conferences, sharing the latest research, current topics in literacy education and ideas for classroom practice.

Research and Development

UKLA collaborates on projects and research and development work with organisations such as PNS, QCA, TDA, BFI, NLT and IBBY and with teachers across the country.

Publications

UKLA publishes Minibooks and an Ideas in Practice series written for teachers. In addition, members can opt to also receive the Journal of Research in Reading.

Awards

The UKLA Children's Book Award is judged by teachers for teachers. In addition a biennial Author Award is made for an outstanding professional text about the teaching of literacy.

International Work

UKLA runs a successful teacher/ITE exchange scheme with European Countries and participates actively in European development work on literacy. UKLA also runs an expanding Books for Africa project which raises money in the UK to stock primary school libraries in Zanzibar and Gambia.

UKLA

The United Kingdom Literacy Association

Why join UKLA?

- Keep up to date with 3 free copies a year of:

UKLA Literacy News - the Association newsletter

English 4-11 - a practical professional magazine, published with The English Association

Literacy - the Association's professional and academic journal

- Get discounts on UKLA's publications and conferences
- Access the members' area on the website, take part in live forum debates and download articles
- Have a voice on national issues that affect English teaching through UKLA's involvement with government bodies
- Take part in UKLA collaborative research projects or apply for UKLA research grants
- Use your membership as evidence of your professional commitment, contributing to the Professional Standards for Teachers.

Be part of a vibrant national network and make more of a difference - Join us!

www.ukla.org